

DON'T PUT IT OFF-SUBSCRIBE

CARLSTADT PROGRESS

DON'T WAIT-ADVERTISE NOW!

Volume I.

CARLSTADT, ALBERTA, THURSDAY, MAY 9, 1912

NO. 20

WE ARE NOW DOING BUSINESS IN OUR New Store

With a new line of Dry Goods, Notions, Gents' Furnishings, gents' ladies', misses' and children's Shoes and Rubbers. Come and inspect our goods.

The policy of this store is The Best Possible Goods for the money, without any deception whatever. All things advertised can be relied on absolutely as represented, both as to quality and price.

Our groceries are fresh and prices right. Highest market price paid for good butter and fresh eggs.

H. R. BEAN

Something should be done by the different governments to make ocean travel more safe. They should regulate the course traveled, also the speed, and require all boats doing a passenger business to carry sufficient life boats to take care of the passengers and crew. Why take the risk by speeding the boats across the water in order to save a few hours time when so many human lives are at stake?

Tell your friends about Progress and ask them to subscribe.

Get your entry notices printed in Progress and in the Brooks Banner. The two papers cover a very wide territory.

JOB PRINTING

Among the most nicely appointed and best equipped libraries in the world that of the Club of Brooks is said to stand easily first. The metals and the movable apparatus in it are estimated to be worth $2,000.00. All the table service in use for eating and nothing purposes is adorned with gold, silver and gold plate. The covers of plates are also of gold, adorned with precious stones. The chief cook employed to make especially appealing dishes for the Shah, uses warming dishes, ladles, and even coal burners, of gold-plated silver.

A meeting of River Bend Union U. F. A. is called for May 11th 7:30 p.m. at the schoolhouse, and a good attendance and hearty co-operation of all interested is requested.

So common has become for the man who has made money in business in a city to buy a country place, perhaps to live there a while and never leave, where he and his family may spend a portion of the year or even make a permanent residence; that while worthy of remark, the word, is but that of an ordinary occurrence. Life is far from being the extent or even the most important factor in the back to the farm movement. The strength of the movement is in the men and women who have gone and who are going out from the cities to make homes among the hills and hills of God's good country and to take up the ever fascinating labor of tilling the soil that will be necessary for man's subsistence and comfort.

So large a part have men of country birth and breeding played in the large affairs of the world, and not less so in the successful conduct of the ordinary business of the cities, that we have come almost to the belief that the great majority of men, who are successful in business and professional life come out from the farm. So common is the acknowledgement, "I was born and raised on a farm," that we expect and are not surprised to hear it from men of all walks and conditions in life, and this fact has an important bearing upon the "back to the farm" movement.

Mr. Jas. Garrison is now wearing the smile that won't wear off. A new settee came on April 29th. It's a Boy.

The two prairie steamers are having some difficulty in plowing, due to wet places. They also experience some difficulty in obtaining fuel.

Sit Down and Listen

Look for this Sign

when you go to buy paint. In other words, come to us when you have any painting to do.

SHERWIN-WILLIAMS PAINTS are the highest quality and will give you the greatest satisfaction. There's a particular product for every purpose. We have a full line of S-W. Products.

The humming birds are coming, and with them our complete stock of Screen doors and Windows, which if you will stay behind them we will guarantee you won't be hurt.

Our Paint, Hardware, and Wire stock are now complete so if you can't make fencing or building, give us a call.

A. J. DRUMMOND & CO. Hardware Merchants.

Use BEAVER BOARD for the Walls and Ceiling of Your New or Remodeled Building

IT costs less than lath and plaster, lumber, or metal; is more quickly and easily put up; is durable, sanitary and artistic.

It will not crack, chip or deteriorate with age; it deadens sound, keeps out heat and cold, retards fire, and resists strain or vibration.

Made entirely of selected woods, reduced to fibers, form and pressed into panels of uniform thickness, with handsome, finished surface. Made in convenient sizes for every purpose. Small quantities furnished for making many decorative and useful household articles. Full instructions for application. Apply to

FINLAY & CO., Sole Agents.

C. H. WAGNER, Manager

THOM. SWANBY Hardware, Furniture SPECIAL FOR THE Farmers and Dairymen

You can't be blamed for getting the most you can for your money but be sure you get it

Before you order a "mailorder" Separato, write to the concern and tell them that you want to try their machine out against a DeLaval, with the privilege of sending their machine back if you decide that the DeLaval is better worth what we ask you for it than their machine what they ask.

We'll be glad to furnish you a DeLaval for such a trial any time you like and let you be the judge.

We are glad to make this offer because we know that the DeLaval will give better service and cost you less in the long run than any other machine you can buy, no matter what the price.

Enclosed to turn, easier to wash, skins the cleanest, lasts the longest. All we ask is a fair show, sooner or later you will buy a DeLaval.

Whom in Suffield if you are hungry. Wanted—Girl twelve to fifteen years old to help at the Dining Hall and act a 14-year-old boy for children. Can square meal—Dad Dr. Doyle, private school. Inquire at Dr. Doyle's proprietor.

Wanted—Housekeeper at Great West Hotel, Carlstadt. Good pay. Good tax for sale in any quantity. Carlstadt Grain Co.

LOCAL NEWSNOTES

E. C. Hegy and family arrived last week from Chicago.

Carlstadt has had some Indian visitors the past week.

Rev. Burns was at Medicine Hat Tuesday night.

O. T. Crigwick Suffield and Ira German of Fort Macleod are two new subscribers to Progress.

Contractor McCullagh has a force of carpenters at work on Dr. McEwen's new drug store building.

Rev. Barnes gave the ladies and the mosquitoes a treat Wednesday afternoon by taking the ladies out in the country to a meeting of the Ladies Aid.

H. B. Brigham is attending to F. C. McDiamond's implement business this week while Mr. McDiamond is attending to business on the homestead.

John Leonard has had his hardware repaired and it presents a handsome appearance.

E. J. Bell of Cravath Corners, agent for the Rumley engines, was in town the first of the week.

Big posters are out announcing the Alberta Musical Festival which will be held this month in Edmonton. This annual festival has grown to such proportions as to be a credit to the province.

Homesteaders and Farmers, as well as their live stock are suffering a good deal these days from snow quakes. They have some very early this season and will probably be with us till the snow flies.

John Burton is the new landlord at the American Inn. He proposes to make it a hotel on a new and better basis and expects to be able to please the traveling public.

Sonata & Nation, who have conducted the hall very successfully, have sold out to W. H. Johnson, of Edmonton, who has taken possession. Mr. Johnson expects to make a number of improvements at once.

Boys don't be afraid of the overalls. Prepare for your life work by getting the most knowledge possible about the particular line of work you want to make a life-work. It is the day and the age of utility; and when you come down to brass tacks, usefulness, actual service, is the only thing worth having. These are spheres of usefulness removed from overalls, but the preliminary and formative stages of the usefulness of whatever kind or quality has upon it the badge of labor.

The "true" farmer in Edmonton district, who can raise more tons of vegetables off an acre than is often obtained from two acres in eastern Canada, sold his cabbage last fall, at a minimum price of two cents per pound, and is utterly unable to overtake the demands of the market available.

Mr. M. Gillham last week purchased a yoke of oxen west of here. He reports prices on oxen generally high.

The world's largest book is being manufactured for a Chinese medical firm. The book, which will contain all the testimonial regarding their goods, will weigh 1200 pounds, will be one foot thick when closed, and its dimensions when open will be 31.2 feet by 7 feet. A special table will be made to hold the book.

Five days after the death of John Arbuckle, the cigar millionaire, who died in New York on Wednesday, his lawyers aid-relatives have about given up hope of finding a will, and it is now believed that he died intestate. His estate is estimated at more than $20,000,000. No children survive to inherit, and Mrs. Arbuckle, his wife, died five years ago.

HARD PRESSED

FRED M. WHITE
LONDON
WARD, LOCK & CO., LIMITED

(Continued)

CHAPTER XXIV.

A Strange Visitor

Interest as well as sympathy lit up Alice's eyes. She looked with something more than admiration at the well-set-up young man who came striding across the turf to where she stood. He had a laid an impressive hand upon her friend's arm.

"I am sure that I meant to tell you so much," she whispered. "But I spoke on the spur of the moment. I have been to England only once, especially an accident. Let me tell you about that later. Come to think of it, I have come to see you again. You have got some of his belongings, are you surprised? Nobody recognized him. He was the only one who could be excepting an old stud-groom who had been in the employ of the Fieldens for many years. I have just found that no one knew him; he thought he might procure some compensation from his employer, who is in the villain's employ. Don't be so heartless because I speak so freely. I have told you all I have as if had not told you this story. Field is an old friend of mine, the only thing I have to remember."

Alice Carsten promised to act discreetly. Then, as she left, for Field was beside them and Alice found herself bowing to him as if he were a new acquaintance. "You have not been here before?" he asked.

"This is my first visit to Harefield," Alice said. "I have seen you before. Field is a good member; you were with my father and Sir George at Mirat Park a day or two ago." She added, "I am glad to see you again."

"I have not forgotten it," Field said. "I understand that you are an old friend of May's. I mean Miss Hardele's. Good morning, Mr. Field. I am here to dine with you."

He glanced a fash at the speaker. "We shall be delighted," she said. "I fancy my father told me he expected you."

Field remained for a moment or two, then it suddenly occurred to him that he had forgotten an important appointment which had detained him that evening. He understood what May had hinted at him. By now he was rapidly becoming too much of a Harefield Park whilst Copley was still a boy. By the way of turning the conversation suggested that the girls should dine with him at the hotel. "Nothing I should like better," Alice cried.

Critical Time of Woman's Life

From 40 to 50 Years of Age.
How It May Be Passed in Safety.

So Wellington, B.C.—"For a year during the Change of Life I was all run down. I was really ill. I was very weak and very despondent and thought I was going to die. I called in Dr. E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and my health and strength returned. I am very thankful to you and your product. I am now in full strength again. I have advised several women who suffered as I did to try your remedies. You may purchase it if you will write to Dr. E. Pinkham, South Wellington, Vancouver, B.C."

No other medicine for woman's life has received such wide-spread and unusual success. It is a safe, reliable and effective medicine which has such a record of success as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. For many that have been the standard remedy for women's ills such as inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, pericarditis, pain, etc., have found relief. And we believe it is unequalled for women during the period of change of life.

If you have the slightest doubt about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, call in your physician. Lydia E. Pinkham's Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

"Then come on!" Field said eagerly. "Let me help you down. You will find the stable everything to be desired. They are modern, built of wood, and have been recently been overhauled. From first to last they must be cost above what you paid for the house. We have six harnesses more than are necessary; most things are conducted on a most lavish scale."

"And the horses?" Alice asked.

"Well, as to the horses, the less said about them the better. They are a great moderate lot. I later on would break out a bit. But come and see for yourself."

"I am afraid I will be the last to break in. Was ever such a pair?"

"It was, and the two girls walked back towards the arch yard. Outside the gates of two stable were engaged in an alteration. The trap had sprung and the advanced state of intoxication.

"Excuse me for a moment," Field said. "I suppose it is a man. I am sure what is wrong. Now, my man, what are you doing?

It was easy for the girls to hear every word of the conversation. Authority in Field's voice the trap looked up and made a ludicrous face. "I am sorry, sir," he said, "but my right eye there was a fresh cut, from which the blood was trickling."

"With great difficulty he got up, but his hands were tied behind his back. "I am sorry for what I am in the world you are the fairest, to Deponent's information and belief."

"I come to see Mr. Copley," the trap said. "Copley isn't here." Field said crustily: "Still if you want to, it would be as well to talk to me. And I am sure that you will be pleased with our arrangements."

"I am related to Barney O'Brien," Thomas O'Brien once asked.

Very distinctly he said,

"I am the mother's first child—Barney is the sixteenth."

"Plainly Heard."

The Bearded Lady—Were you at that earthquake shock?

The Living Skeleton—I was badly rattled.

"I hope you won't get hurt," Alice said.

Carden said. "It is curious, but the blood was running in his cheeks when he ordered me out, and I am sure that from anyone, gur'her, and so I tell you. If you don't believe me try it."

"I am sorry, but I have not told you this story."

Field is old and friend of ours, and the only thing I have to have is to remember."

Alice Carsten promised to act discreetly. Then, as she left, for Field was beside them and Alice found herself bowing to him as if he were a new acquaintance.

"You have not been here before?" he asked.

"This is my first visit to Harefield," Alice said. "I have seen you before. Field is a good member; you were with my father and Sir George at Mirat Park a day or two ago." She added, "I am glad to see you again."

"I have not forgotten it," Field said. "I understand that you are an old friend of May's. I mean Miss Hardele's. Good morning, Mr. Field. I am here to dine with you."

He glanced a fash at the speaker. "We shall be delighted," she said. "I fancy my father told me he expected you."

Field remained for a moment or two, then it suddenly occurred to him that he had forgotten an important appointment which had detained him that evening. He understood what May had hinted at him. By now he was rapidly becoming too much of a Harefield Park whilst Copley was still a boy. By the way of turning the conversation suggested that the girls should dine with him at the hotel. "Nothing I should like better," Alice cried.

CARLSTADT PROGRESS, CARLSTADT, ALBERTA.

COCKSHUTT
PIOW COMPANY
LIMITED

ADAMS WAGONS
Designed to give the greatest possible carrying capacity with lightest possible draft.
NO BETTER WAGONS MADE

AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENT

He went on to remark that if he had to put up with any more of it like you, he would find himself in your true interests about Covent Garden. "Idiot! repeat, wasn't he?"

Field spoke carelessly, but he kept an eye upon Copley. He saw the trap's face, and noted how the blood had faded, and how his eyes shone with anger.

"I suppose," he said, "the fellow thinks that I am interested in Covent Garden. But there is no such place as that. You are a drunkard man. Anyway, it's not worth thinking about. Anything fresh to report today?"

(To be Continued.)

The Lovelorn Lawyer to His Lady.

I gave release, decided to you in the one long letter and prayed that you would be kind to me.

My counsel, judge, associate and chief witness, all are dead. I am alone.

With grief, I have to tell you about that. I am alone. Come to think of it, I am alone.

Now, my man, what are you doing?

It was easy for the girls to hear every word of the conversation. Authority in Field's voice the trap looked up and made a ludicrous face.

"I am sorry, but I have not told you this story."

Field is old and friend of ours, and the only thing I have to have is to remember."

Alice Carsten promised to act discreetly. Then, as she left, for Field was beside them and Alice found herself bowing to him as if he were a new acquaintance.

"You have not been here before?" he asked.

"This is my first visit to Harefield," Alice said. "I have seen you before. Field is a good member; you were with my father and Sir George at Mirat Park a day or two ago." She added, "I am glad to see you again."

"I have not forgotten it," Field said. "I understand that you are an old friend of May's. I mean Miss Hardele's. Good morning, Mr. Field. I am here to dine with you."

He glanced a fash at the speaker. "We shall be delighted," she said. "I fancy my father told me he expected you."

Field remained for a moment or two, then it suddenly occurred to him that he had forgotten an important appointment which had detained him that evening. He understood what May had hinted at him. By now he was rapidly becoming too much of a Harefield Park whilst Copley was still a boy. By the way of turning the conversation suggested that the girls should dine with him at the hotel. "Nothing I should like better," Alice cried.

"Then come on!" Field said eagerly. "Let me help you down. You will find the stable everything to be desired. They are modern, built of wood, and have been recently been overhauled. From first to last they must be cost above what you paid for the house. We have six harnesses more than are necessary; most things are conducted on a most lavish scale."

"And the horses?" Alice asked.

"Well, as to the horses, the less said about them the better. They are a great moderate lot. I later on would break out a bit. But come and see for yourself."

"I am afraid I will be the last to break in. Was ever such a pair?"

It was easy for the girls to hear every word of the conversation. Authority in Field's voice the trap looked up and made a ludicrous face.

"I am sorry, but I have not told you this story."

Field is old and friend of ours, and the only thing I have to have is to remember."

Alice Carsten promised to act discreetly. Then, as she left, for Field was beside them and Alice found herself bowing to him as if he were a new acquaintance.

"You have not been here before?" he asked.

"This is my first visit to Harefield," Alice said. "I have seen you before. Field is a good member; you were with my father and Sir George at Mirat Park a day or two ago." She added, "I am glad to see you again."

"I have not forgotten it," Field said. "I understand that you are an old friend of May's. I mean Miss Hardele's. Good morning, Mr. Field. I am here to dine with you."

He glanced a fash at the speaker. "We shall be delighted," she said. "I fancy my father told me he expected you."

Field remained for a moment or two, then it suddenly occurred to him that he had forgotten an important appointment which had detained him that evening. He understood what May had hinted at him. By now he was rapidly becoming too much of a Harefield Park whilst Copley was still a boy. By the way of turning the conversation suggested that the girls should dine with him at the hotel. "Nothing I should like better," Alice cried.

"Then come on!" Field said eagerly. "Let me help you down. You will find the stable everything to be desired. They are modern, built of wood, and have been recently been overhauled. From first to last they must be cost above what you paid for the house. We have six harnesses more than are necessary; most things are conducted on a most lavish scale."

"And the horses?" Alice asked.

"Well, as to the horses, the less said about them the better. They are a great moderate lot. I later on would break out a bit. But come and see for yourself."

"I am afraid I will be the last to break in. Was ever such a pair?"

It was easy for the girls to hear every word of the conversation. Authority in Field's voice the trap looked up and made a ludicrous face.

"I am sorry, but I have not told you this story."

Field is old and friend of ours, and the only thing I have to have is to remember."

Alice Carsten promised to act discreetly. Then, as she left, for Field was beside them and Alice found herself bowing to him as if he were a new acquaintance.

"You have not been here before?" he asked.

"This is my first visit to Harefield," Alice said. "I have seen you before. Field is a good member; you were with my father and Sir George at Mirat Park a day or two ago." She added, "I am glad to see you again."

"I have not forgotten it," Field said. "I understand that you are an old friend of May's. I mean Miss Hardele's. Good morning, Mr. Field. I am here to dine with you."

He glanced a fash at the speaker. "We shall be delighted," she said. "I fancy my father told me he expected you."

Field remained for a moment or two, then it suddenly occurred to him that he had forgotten an important appointment which had detained him that evening. He understood what May had hinted at him. By now he was rapidly becoming too much of a Harefield Park whilst Copley was still a boy. By the way of turning the conversation suggested that the girls should dine with him at the hotel. "Nothing I should like better," Alice cried.

"Then come on!" Field said eagerly. "Let me help you down. You will find the stable everything to be desired. They are modern, built of wood, and have been recently been overhauled. From first to last they must be cost above what you paid for the house. We have six harnesses more than are necessary; most things are conducted on a most lavish scale."

"And the horses?" Alice asked.

"Well, as to the horses, the less said about them the better. They are a great moderate lot. I later on would break out a bit. But come and see for yourself."

"I am afraid I will be the last to break in. Was ever such a pair?"

It was easy for the girls to hear every word of the conversation. Authority in Field's voice the trap looked up and made a ludicrous face.

"I am sorry, but I have not told you this story."

Field is old and friend of ours, and the only thing I have to have is to remember."

Alice Carsten promised to act discreetly. Then, as she left, for Field was beside them and Alice found herself bowing to him as if he were a new acquaintance.

"You have not been here before?" he asked.

"This is my first visit to Harefield," Alice said. "I have seen you before. Field is a good member; you were with my father and Sir George at Mirat Park a day or two ago." She added, "I am glad to see you again."

"I have not forgotten it," Field said. "I understand that you are an old friend of May's. I mean Miss Hardele's. Good morning, Mr. Field. I am here to dine with you."

He glanced a fash at the speaker. "We shall be delighted," she said. "I fancy my father told me he expected you."

Field remained for a moment or two, then it suddenly occurred to him that he had forgotten an important appointment which had detained him that evening. He understood what May had hinted at him. By now he was rapidly becoming too much of a Harefield Park whilst Copley was still a boy. By the way of turning the conversation suggested that the girls should dine with him at the hotel. "Nothing I should like better," Alice cried.

"Then come on!" Field said eagerly. "Let me help you down. You will find the stable everything to be desired. They are modern, built of wood, and have been recently been overhauled. From first to last they must be cost above what you paid for the house. We have six harnesses more than are necessary; most things are conducted on a most lavish scale."

"And the horses?" Alice asked.

"Well, as to the horses, the less said about them the better. They are a great moderate lot. I later on would break out a bit. But come and see for yourself."

"I am afraid I will be the last to break in. Was ever such a pair?"

It was easy for the girls to hear every word of the conversation. Authority in Field's voice the trap looked up and made a ludicrous face.

"I am sorry, but I have not told you this story."

Field is old and friend of ours, and the only thing I have to have is to remember."

Alice Carsten promised to act discreetly. Then, as she left, for Field was beside them and Alice found herself bowing to him as if he were a new acquaintance.

"You have not been here before?" he asked.

"This is my first visit to Harefield," Alice said. "I have seen you before. Field is a good member; you were with my father and Sir George at Mirat Park a day or two ago." She added, "I am glad to see you again."

"I have not forgotten it," Field said. "I understand that you are an old friend of May's. I mean Miss Hardele's. Good morning, Mr. Field. I am here to dine with you."

He glanced a fash at the speaker. "We shall be delighted," she said. "I fancy my father told me he expected you."

Field remained for a moment or two, then it suddenly occurred to him that he had forgotten an important appointment which had detained him that evening. He understood what May had hinted at him. By now he was rapidly becoming too much of a Harefield Park whilst Copley was still a boy. By the way of turning the conversation suggested that the girls should dine with him at the hotel. "Nothing I should like better," Alice cried.

"Then come on!" Field said eagerly. "Let me help you down. You will find the stable everything to be desired. They are modern, built of wood, and have been recently been overhauled. From first to last they must be cost above what you paid for the house. We have six harnesses more than are necessary; most things are conducted on a most lavish scale."

"And the horses?" Alice asked.

"Well, as to the horses, the less said about them the better. They are a great moderate lot. I later on would break out a bit. But come and see for yourself."

"I am afraid I will be the last to break in. Was ever such a pair?"

It was easy for the girls to hear every word of the conversation. Authority in Field's voice the trap looked up and made a ludicrous face.

"I am sorry, but I have not told you this story."

Field is old and friend of ours, and the only thing I have to have is to remember."

Alice Carsten promised to act discreetly. Then, as she left, for Field was beside them and Alice found herself bowing to him as if he were a new acquaintance.

"You have not been here before?" he asked.

"This is my first visit to Harefield," Alice said. "I have seen you before. Field is a good member; you were with my father and Sir George at Mirat Park a day or two ago." She added, "I am glad to see you again."

"I have not forgotten it," Field said. "I understand that you are an old friend of May's. I mean Miss Hardele's. Good morning, Mr. Field. I am here to dine with you."

He glanced a fash at the speaker. "We shall be delighted," she said. "I fancy my father told me he expected you."

Field remained for a moment or two, then it suddenly occurred to him that he had forgotten an important appointment which had detained him that evening. He understood what May had hinted at him. By now he was rapidly becoming too much of a Harefield Park whilst Copley was still a boy. By the way of turning the conversation suggested that the girls should dine with him at the hotel. "Nothing I should like better," Alice cried.

"Then come on!" Field said eagerly. "Let me help you down. You will find the stable everything to be desired. They are modern, built of wood, and have been recently been overhauled. From first to last they must be cost above what you paid for the house. We have six harnesses more than are necessary; most things are conducted on a most lavish scale."

"And the horses?" Alice asked.

"Well, as to the horses, the less said about them the better. They are a great moderate lot. I later on would break out a bit. But come and see for yourself."

"I am afraid I will be the last to break in. Was ever such a pair?"

It was easy for the girls to hear every word of the conversation. Authority in Field's voice the trap looked up and made a ludicrous face.

"I am sorry, but I have not told you this story."

Field is old and friend of ours, and the only thing I have to have is to remember."

Alice Carsten promised to act discreetly. Then, as she left, for Field was beside them and Alice found herself bowing to him as if he were a new acquaintance.

"You have not been here before?" he asked.

"This is my first visit to Harefield," Alice said. "I have seen you before. Field is a good member; you were with my father and Sir George at Mirat Park a day or two ago." She added, "I am glad to see you again."

"I have not forgotten it," Field said. "I understand that you are an old friend of May's. I mean Miss Hardele's. Good morning, Mr. Field. I am here to dine with you."

He glanced a fash at the speaker. "We shall be delighted," she said. "I fancy my father told me he expected you."

Field remained for a moment or two, then it suddenly occurred to him that he had forgotten an important appointment which had detained him that evening. He understood what May had hinted at him. By now he was rapidly becoming too much of a Harefield Park whilst Copley was still a boy. By the way of turning the conversation suggested that the girls should dine with him at the hotel. "Nothing I should like better," Alice cried.

"Then come on!" Field said eagerly. "Let me help you down. You will find the stable everything to be desired. They are modern, built of wood, and have been recently been overhauled. From first to last they must be cost above what you paid for the house. We have six harnesses more than are necessary; most things are conducted on a most lavish scale."

"And the horses?" Alice asked.

"Well, as to the horses, the less said about them the better. They are a great moderate lot. I later on would break out a bit. But come and see for yourself."

"I am afraid I will be the last to break in. Was ever such a pair?"

It was easy for the girls to hear every word of the conversation. Authority in Field's voice the trap looked up and made a ludicrous face.

"I am sorry, but I have not told you this story."

Field is old and friend of ours, and the only thing I have to have is to remember."

Alice Carsten promised to act discreetly. Then, as she left, for Field was beside them and Alice found herself bowing to him as if he were a new acquaintance.

"You have not been here before?" he asked.

"This is my first visit to Harefield," Alice said. "I have seen you before. Field is a good member; you were with my father and Sir George at Mirat Park a day or two ago." She added, "I am glad to see you again."

"I have not forgotten it," Field said. "I understand that you are an old friend of May's. I mean Miss Hardele's. Good morning, Mr. Field. I am here to dine with you."

He glanced a fash at the speaker. "We shall be delighted," she said. "I fancy my father told me he expected you."

Field remained for a moment or two, then it suddenly occurred to him that he had forgotten an important appointment which had detained him that evening. He understood what May had hinted at him. By now he was rapidly becoming too much of a Harefield Park whilst Copley was still a boy. By the way of turning the conversation suggested that the girls should dine with him at the hotel. "Nothing I should like better," Alice cried.

"Then come on!" Field said eagerly. "Let me help you down. You will find the stable everything to be desired. They are modern, built of wood, and have been recently been overhauled. From first to last they must be cost above what you paid for the house. We have six harnesses more than are necessary; most things are conducted on a most lavish scale."

"And the horses?" Alice asked.

"Well, as to the horses, the less said about them the better. They are a great moderate lot. I later on would break out a bit. But come and see for yourself."

"I am afraid I will be the last to break in. Was ever such a pair?"

It was easy for the girls to hear every word of the conversation. Authority in Field's voice the trap looked up and made a ludicrous face.

"I am sorry, but I have not told you this story."

Field is old and friend of ours, and the only thing I have to have is to remember."

Alice Carsten promised to act discreetly. Then, as she left, for Field was beside them and Alice found herself bowing to him as if he were a new acquaintance.

"You have not been here before?" he asked.

"This is my first visit to Harefield," Alice said. "I have seen you before. Field is a good member; you were with my father and Sir George at Mirat Park a day or two ago." She added, "I am glad to see you again."

"I have not forgotten it," Field said. "I understand that you are an old friend of May's. I mean Miss Hardele's. Good morning, Mr. Field. I am here to dine with you."

He glanced a fash at the speaker. "We shall be delighted," she said. "I fancy my father told me he expected you."

Field remained for a moment or two, then it suddenly occurred to him that he had forgotten an important appointment which had detained him that evening. He understood what May had hinted at him. By now he was rapidly becoming too much of a Harefield Park whilst Copley was still a boy. By the way of turning the conversation suggested that the girls should dine with him at the hotel. "Nothing I should like better," Alice cried.

"Then come on!" Field said eagerly. "Let me help you down. You will find the stable everything to be desired. They are modern, built of wood, and have been recently been overhauled. From first to last they must be cost above what you paid for the house. We have six harnesses more than are necessary; most things are conducted on a most lavish scale."

"And the horses?" Alice asked.

"Well, as to the horses, the less said about them the better. They are a great moderate lot. I later on would break out a bit. But come and see for yourself."

"I am afraid I will be the last to break in. Was ever such a pair?"

It was easy for the girls to hear every word of the conversation. Authority in Field's voice the trap looked up and made a ludicrous face.

"I am sorry, but I have not told you this story."

Field is old and friend of ours, and the only thing I have to have is to remember."

Alice Carsten promised to act discreetly. Then, as she left, for Field was beside them and Alice found herself bowing to him as if he were a new acquaintance.

"You have not been here before?" he asked.

"This is my first visit to Harefield," Alice said. "I have seen you before. Field is a good member; you were with my father and Sir George at Mirat Park a day or two ago." She added, "I am glad to see you again."

"I have not forgotten it," Field said. "I understand that you are an old friend of May's. I mean Miss Hardele's. Good morning, Mr. Field. I am here to dine with you."

He glanced a fash at the speaker. "We shall be delighted," she said. "I fancy my father told me he expected you."

CARLSTADT PROGRESS

Calvin Gose, Publisher

Subscription price $1.00 a year, in advance

Advertising rates 25¢ an inch each insertion for transient ads; legal notices 50¢ an inch each insertion, extra fee 10¢ each insertion; legal advertising 12¢ a line first insertion, 10¢ a line each subsequent insertion. Subscriptions to United States, $1.00. Single copies, 25¢.

That Old Serpent who first after Adam showed the master hand on a woman's heart, certainly made a good and lasting job of it. He deceived the woman, the woman deceived the man. Adam deceived himself and men and women have been successful deceivers of themselves and others since. That little object lesson with the apple was a blooming success, a Navalil blooming success. Think of it seriously; don't you try to deceive others, and don't you know that you are constantly trying to deceive yourself, and succeeding pretty well at it, too? It's the truth. If men were out and out exactly what they are in heart at all times this world wouldn't be worth living in and if women always said exactly what they think, no man could live peacefully with one of them. Bless their hearts that they are deceivers. We men like it and we meet deception with deception. Mostly it is harmless, it is true, on both sides, but now and then if carried too far, it ends in trouble, just as the devil's first deception of man led to trouble and all our woes. Some men deceive themselves all their lives. They place an estimate on themselves that all other estimates of their friends or their enemies cannot dispossess themselves of and they go down to the grave with their own false estimate unchanged. Perhaps it is a harmless deception after all and it is not I that would disillusion any little strutter on life's stage who imagines he is the hero or the heavy villain in the play. Let him act his part or the part he thinks is his. My own illusions as to myself may be less sensible than his.

When I hear a man saying he don't care what becomes of him, honestly I feel like agreeing with him. No man ever reaches that frame of mind who is striving heartily to do his part in the world. It is always the fellow who is trying to shift his burden onto somebody else's shoulder. He is a shirker, an incompetent, a dillit, and he will never amount to anything until he gets rid of some of his selfishness and tries to help make the world a better place to live in. Tired of life? Oh, phaw! Get a wiggle on, shuffle off that idea and make your own life something to be proud of.

Progress Prose Poems

By Kalgos

My, oh, my, and holly gee, things are growing, don't you see; now you're shootin' things are sproutin', and what will the harvest be? Tell me not the number of your encumbers till they shall in pickles be. On the prairie men are wearin' with the labors of the day but are hoping all their sloping of the soil will bring its pay. And it will sure, vals and berries will present a grand display. It's a hummer how the summer floods with sunshine all the land and the growing crop is showing something that just beats the band. Barley, peas and wheat this season will produce, well something grand.

PITHY POINTS ALONG THE LINE OF PROGRESS

The man who wants peace badly enough to fight for it never has it.

If one heard all the good things said about himself and never any of the bad, he would have no spur to improvement.

Next to wisdom man's greatest blessing from the Almighty is the gift of the sense of humor.

It is a sed thing to say for humanity, but I have found dogs more constant in their friendships than man.

If you could always think well of yourself it don't matter so much what the other fellow thinks.

Even the man who is well read and in the pink of health may feel blue when he gets in a brown study.

Men who climb to success solely on other men's failures don't deserve much credit for the performance.

He DID all he could would be an appropriate inscription on the tombstone of some men I know.

Human nature is one thing that doesn't improve with civilization.

A bad liver may make a man feel mean and sheepish but his actual evil deeds emanate from a bad heart.

Some people know a lot of things in such an imperfect way that the knowledge does little good.

The wise man is a fool sometime, the fool is a wise man never.

HORSES OR STEAM ENGINE, WHICH?

To break pack, double disc and seed 20 acres in one day with horses would require 56 horses and harness, which would cost not less than $15,000, and require 14 men with not less than $6,000 cash payment. We can sell you a firstclass Gasoline Engine, latest type, guaranteed to SATISFY YOU, for less than $3,000, and a very small payment down, that will do the above work, and requires but two men. Or a good Steam Engine for less than one fourth the cost of the horses, with no payment till you get a crop. Delivery in short order. We sell the celebrated Marshall Gasoline Engines, also Sawyer-Massey's latest type and rear mount Steam Engines. Talk the matter over with

CLARK BROS. & HALL, CARLSTADT

Will do Plowing on Contract.

SEE CARLSTADT
THE STAR OF PROGRESS

BEFORE SETTLING IN SUNNY SOUTHERN ALBERTA

READ CAREFULLY THESE ARTICLES BY CARLSTADT

BUSINESS MEN

"GET YOUR CANADIAN HOME FROM THE CANADIAN PACIFIC"

TWO BLADES OF GRASS

He who makes two blades of grass grow where one grew before is hailed a benefactor of mankind.

BOW RIVER LANDS

will grow not only two but a dozen blades to one in less favored districts. Fertile lands on easy payments.

Canadian Pacific Irrigation Colonization Co., Ltd.

Calgary, Alberta

James Bussard

Has taken the Agency for the

Emerson Plow Co. Goods

Can sell a

Good Gang Plow for $75

3 Seeders, 20-disc, $110 each

Good Buggy for $65

Disc Harrows at $38

AND EVERYTHING ELSE IN PROPORTION

TIME GIVEN, CALL AT

Great West Hotel

POOL AND BILLIARDS

BARBER SHOP IN CONNECTION

CIGARS AND TOBACCOES

Under new management

W. H. JOHNSON

Proprietor

Give us Your PRINTING
We will Do it right and Always ready when Called for

W. G. SCOLLARD

E. C. HEY

DEERING
Drills

As well as a complete line of other machinery always on hand.
All goods and straight dealing is what you receive at

Scollard & Hegy
Deering Agents, Carlstadt, Alt.

HOMESTEADERS

GOING AWAY

FOR THE SUMMER

SHOULD HAVE

PROGRESS

Expects to stake out a trail all its own in the journalism of Western Canada and will not take any other newspaper as a guide or pattern, not because we are a bigoted and think our way the only way but because we like variety and believe the people generally like even a semblance of originality, and also we have a hobby and that hobby is to print the local news. We are going to strive to be worthy of our name

PROGRESS

TO ANY ADDRESS FOR

ONE DOLLAR

POSTAGE TO STATES,

ONE CENT A WEEK

Scollard & Hegy
FOR

100 PERSONS CURED OF ECZEMA

Within the past few months over 100 persons have written to the Zam-Buk Co., reporting their cure of eczema, rashes and skin diseases by Zam-Buk!

Does this prove Zam-Buk? But does it prove anything else?

Don't you need it in your household?

Miss Mary McCullagh, 919 St. Catherine Street, Montreal, Quebec, says:

"I do not know words powerful enough to express my gratitude to you for your wonderful product. My scalp and hands. The irritation of the scalp was so bad that I could not sleep at night. I had to have my hair cut off. On my hands patches, the burning and itching of which drove me many times to the parsonary, but they referred me to a skin specialist, who said that mine was a case of eczema. I am sure that it was different from all the other cases of eczema that I have ever seen. He gave me some salve, then a special lotion, but neither gave me any relief."

"I was in a very bad condition when Dr. H. G. Newrich, of Toronto, told me that Zam-Buk would cure me. I have since had no more trouble. I am now quite free from all skin trouble. I am a new person again."

Mr. H. G. Newrich, of the Newrich Clinic, 100 Bloor Street, Toronto, writes:

"I am sending you a copy of the results of our treatment of 100 cases of eczema, rashes and skin diseases. You will be interested to see the results."

Miss Mary McCullagh, 919 St. Catherine Street, Montreal, Quebec.

ZAM-BUK

Not Boasting.

An Irishman and German were sitting on a pier fishing. Neither gave the other any concern. The Irishman was a quiet, unobtrusive-looking man at his clay, while the German seemed absorbed in thought, or was usually excepted to be.

Suddenly the German fell into the water. The splash reached the Irishman's ears, but he paid no attention. "That was all it did, however," he was made to say, "it was a dip in the water."

"I can't swim," said the German as he came up.

"I can't swim," he shouted louder, as he swam back to the pier, "but the sea conditions."

"A dip was about to disappear the third time, the German cried breathlessly.

"It's a mighty funny time to boast about it," replied the smoker of the clay.

His Business.

"Oh, Fred," she said, with a blush, "you know I have the news. There are many coal mines in the Midland, and he is coming again this evening and he wants to see you on some important business."

"All right, my dear," responded the old man, chuckling heartily under the chin. "I know what the young man wants."

"This evening Mr. Chestnut came to the post office at once."

"Mr. Hendricks," he said boldly, "I want to ask you if you have laid in a stock of coal?"—London Ideas.

Mrs. G. A. SELBY AND CHILD

Uses Only Cuticura Soap for Prize Baby

"I have always used Cuticura Soap and no other for my baby, and he has never had a sore of any kind, and I have never had a sore myself."

"I feed it in all owing to the fact that it is a good soap, and when five months old won a prize in a baby contest."

"I have never had a sore since I have used Cuticura, and nine times out of ten it beats all others."

"I hope you will glad to tell us that as Cuticura is a 'Glamor' Medicine, it is good for babies."

Although Cuticura Soap is sold by drugstores and department stores, Dr. G. A. Sely, of 100 Bloor Street, Toronto, D. B. A. will be pleased to supply you with the soap of skin soap and bath.

W. N. U. 887

Poor Old Teacher.

In the correspondence column of a contemporary there recently appeared a question by a son-in-law with whom the author is familiar. It referred to whether other members of the family (three sons) who were said to be dead had been buried in the same grave compelled to bear a portion of the expense of the mother's maintenance. She had been married twice, and the brother-in-law had been asked if she could be buried in his house so that the expenses could be borne.

This was agreed to, but the board money was not paid, and after eighteen months the widow asked for payment.

The answer was diplomatic, namely, that the master was one who had been compelled to bear a portion of the expense, and that a solicitor should be consulted.

Had the person in charge of the Government Annuities System the wisest thing he could have done was to have given the widow a pension, or a purchase of a Government Annuity.

At the age of 75 an annuity of $200 per annum would have been ample as long as she might live, considerably more if she had been married for a longer period.

The mother could have been buried with her daughter for the remainder of her life, and the master's burden, and the family ties would have been strengthened.

The old man, however, had perhaps spent many a sleepless night in anxious attendance upon his wife, who was evidently hovering near, ready to snatched away from her, who had had a stroke, and who had been a burden, and the family ties would have been strengthened.

Spring weather. The changes from mild to cold, the damp winds, the more extreme cases, too, but it must be the trouble that causes rheumatism. The trouble is rooted in the blood—the blood carries the poisons that cause the pains.

The only way to reach the trouble and to cure it is through the medicine and rubbing may give temporary relief.

The sufferer is only wasting time and money with this kind of treatment. The physician must be called.

A well-known newspaper man who treats the public like a boy friend, tells a touching story on himself.

The editor's wife has a familiar name, and he has often mentioned it, and this root out the cause of the trouble. Her name is strong in the doctor's heart.

Mr. Loeffler, Midland, Ont., says: "About two years ago my grandfather, Mr. Loeffler, was attacked with infantile rheumatism. He became so lame he could not carry in a sling, and we felt sure he would never walk again. His heart also affected his heart. The doctor said his blood was turning to iron, and he would never recover."

The medicine the doctor gave him did not do more than make him feel better, but it could not be as bad as ever. On a former occasion Dr. Williams' Pink Pills had cured my grandfather, and I decided to try them again.

They acted just as well as before, and this root out the cause of the trouble had "completely disappeared, and he has not been affected with it since."

Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes Williams' Medicinal Cures, Brockville, Ont.

For Minard's and take no other.

Seaf-Exposed.

A multi-millionaire in a fashion-restaurant," she said, "pointed to a line on the menu and said to the waiter:

"Get some salmon, please."

"An expert," the waiter answered, "but the hand is playing that."

—S. Anna Neiswanger.

Peel! You ever hear the heavy artillery of the sides down and then up again with terrible results?

"Fathers," she went to a sufficient meeting once.—Philadelphia Record.

For Minard's and take no other.

Besetting Speaker.

Cob. Henry R. Smith, Senatorial Candidate for the Progressive Party in the Senate, Parlimen-tary of 1922, has some problems to solve in connection with the expedition to the Arctic.

Common to question the truthfulness of other honorable members of Parliament.

Mr. A.—"A more deserving medical record than Frank Richardson does not exist. He very frequently accepts no fees from his patients."

Mr. B.—"He doesn't say sorry when he comes to settle with us."

Mr. C.—"He always settles with us." —T. Bits.

The United Kingdom, the United States and Germany account for about 80 per cent of the world's output of pig iron.

England is the most densely populated nation in the world, with an average of 636 inhabitants to the square mile.

Germany has the world's largest percentage of its labor force in agriculture, but the number of persons employed in agriculture is declining.

Friend—She complains because we won't give her anything to wear but seal-skin and silver fox.

For Glace Bay.

The people of Glace Bay, N.S., are happy, for that place is to be very much improved this summer.

The Sicasane aeroplane is to start from there in August on its attempt to give prominence to the park.

—"Sicasane Park," he said, "has the additional benefit of having the famous Connaught and Premier Borden there as official starters for the aero-plane meet in the chamber. But in most cases attacks on veracity are often cleverly disguised."

The most aristic effort in this direction was made by Col. Smith who has taken a prominent part in the campaign from the benches opposite.

"The statements of the honourable member for Glace Bay are to the conclusion that if he had lived in the days of Sappho that lady would have recommended him to Adonis as a husband."

For Glace Bay.

The people of Glace Bay, N.S., are happy, for that place is to be very much improved this summer.

The Sicasane aeroplane is to start from there in August on its attempt to give prominence to the park.

—"Sicasane Park," he said, "has the additional benefit of having the famous Connaught and Premier Borden there as official starters for the aero-plane meet in the chamber. But in most cases attacks on veracity are often cleverly disguised."

For Glace Bay.

The people of Glace Bay, N.S., are happy, for that place is to be very much improved this summer.

The Sicasane aeroplane is to start from there in August on its attempt to give prominence to the park.

—"Sicasane Park," he said, "has the additional benefit of having the famous Connaught and Premier Borden there as official starters for the aero-plane meet in the chamber. But in most cases attacks on veracity are often cleverly disguised."

For Glace Bay.

The people of Glace Bay, N.S., are happy, for that place is to be very much improved this summer.

The Sicasane aeroplane is to start from there in August on its attempt to give prominence to the park.

—"Sicasane Park," he said, "has the additional benefit of having the famous Connaught and Premier Borden there as official starters for the aero-plane meet in the chamber. But in most cases attacks on veracity are often cleverly disguised."

For Glace Bay.

The people of Glace Bay, N.S., are happy, for that place is to be very much improved this summer.

The Sicasane aeroplane is to start from there in August on its attempt to give prominence to the park.

—"Sicasane Park," he said, "has the additional benefit of having the famous Connaught and Premier Borden there as official starters for the aero-plane meet in the chamber. But in most cases attacks on veracity are often cleverly disguised."

For Glace Bay.

The people of Glace Bay, N.S., are happy, for that place is to be very much improved this summer.

The Sicasane aeroplane is to start from there in August on its attempt to give prominence to the park.

—"Sicasane Park," he said, "has the additional benefit of having the famous Connaught and Premier Borden there as official starters for the aero-plane meet in the chamber. But in most cases attacks on veracity are often cleverly disguised."

For Glace Bay.

The people of Glace Bay, N.S., are happy, for that place is to be very much improved this summer.

The Sicasane aeroplane is to start from there in August on its attempt to give prominence to the park.

—"Sicasane Park," he said, "has the additional benefit of having the famous Connaught and Premier Borden there as official starters for the aero-plane meet in the chamber. But in most cases attacks on veracity are often cleverly disguised."

For Glace Bay.

The people of Glace Bay, N.S., are happy, for that place is to be very much improved this summer.

The Sicasane aeroplane is to start from there in August on its attempt to give prominence to the park.

—"Sicasane Park," he said, "has the additional benefit of having the famous Connaught and Premier Borden there as official starters for the aero-plane meet in the chamber. But in most cases attacks on veracity are often cleverly disguised."

For Glace Bay.

The people of Glace Bay, N.S., are happy, for that place is to be very much improved this summer.

The Sicasane aeroplane is to start from there in August on its attempt to give prominence to the park.

—"Sicasane Park," he said, "has the additional benefit of having the famous Connaught and Premier Borden there as official starters for the aero-plane meet in the chamber. But in most cases attacks on veracity are often cleverly disguised."

For Glace Bay.

The people of Glace Bay, N.S., are happy, for that place is to be very much improved this summer.

The Sicasane aeroplane is to start from there in August on its attempt to give prominence to the park.

—"Sicasane Park," he said, "has the additional benefit of having the famous Connaught and Premier Borden there as official starters for the aero-plane meet in the chamber. But in most cases attacks on veracity are often cleverly disguised."

For Glace Bay.

The people of Glace Bay, N.S., are happy, for that place is to be very much improved this summer.

The Sicasane aeroplane is to start from there in August on its attempt to give prominence to the park.

—"Sicasane Park," he said, "has the additional benefit of having the famous Connaught and Premier Borden there as official starters for the aero-plane meet in the chamber. But in most cases attacks on veracity are often cleverly disguised."

For Glace Bay.

The people of Glace Bay, N.S., are happy, for that place is to be very much improved this summer.

The Sicasane aeroplane is to start from there in August on its attempt to give prominence to the park.

—"Sicasane Park," he said, "has the additional benefit of having the famous Connaught and Premier Borden there as official starters for the aero-plane meet in the chamber. But in most cases attacks on veracity are often cleverly disguised."

For Glace Bay.

The people of Glace Bay, N.S., are happy, for that place is to be very much improved this summer.

The Sicasane aeroplane is to start from there in August on its attempt to give prominence to the park.

—"Sicasane Park," he said, "has the additional benefit of having the famous Connaught and Premier Borden there as official starters for the aero-plane meet in the chamber. But in most cases attacks on veracity are often cleverly disguised."

For Glace Bay.

The people of Glace Bay, N.S., are happy, for that place is to be very much improved this summer.

The Sicasane aeroplane is to start from there in August on its attempt to give prominence to the park.

—"Sicasane Park," he said, "has the additional benefit of having the famous Connaught and Premier Borden there as official starters for the aero-plane meet in the chamber. But in most cases attacks on veracity are often cleverly disguised."

For Glace Bay.

The people of Glace Bay, N.S., are happy, for that place is to be very much improved this summer.

The Sicasane aeroplane is to start from there in August on its attempt to give prominence to the park.

—"Sicasane Park," he said, "has the additional benefit of having the famous Connaught and Premier Borden there as official starters for the aero-plane meet in the chamber. But in most cases attacks on veracity are often cleverly disguised."

For Glace Bay.

The people of Glace Bay, N.S., are happy, for that place is to be very much improved this summer.

The Sicasane aeroplane is to start from there in August on its attempt to give prominence to the park.

—"Sicasane Park," he said, "has the additional benefit of having the famous Connaught and Premier Borden there as official starters for the aero-plane meet in the chamber. But in most cases attacks on veracity are often cleverly disguised."

For Glace Bay.

The people of Glace Bay, N.S., are happy, for that place is to be very much improved this summer.

The Sicasane aeroplane is to start from there in August on its attempt to give prominence to the park.

—"Sicasane Park," he said, "has the additional benefit of having the famous Connaught and Premier Borden there as official starters for the aero-plane meet in the chamber. But in most cases attacks on veracity are often cleverly disguised."

For Glace Bay.

The people of Glace Bay, N.S., are happy, for that place is to be very much improved this summer.

The Sicasane aeroplane is to start from there in August on its attempt to give prominence to the park.

—"Sicasane Park," he said, "has the additional benefit of having the famous Connaught and Premier Borden there as official starters for the aero-plane meet in the chamber. But in most cases attacks on veracity are often cleverly disguised."

For Glace Bay.

The people of Glace Bay, N.S., are happy, for that place is to be very much improved this summer.

The Sicasane aeroplane is to start from there in August on its attempt to give prominence to the park.

—"Sicasane Park," he said, "has the additional benefit of having the famous Connaught and Premier Borden there as official starters for the aero-plane meet in the chamber. But in most cases attacks on veracity are often cleverly disguised."

For Glace Bay.

The people of Glace Bay, N.S., are happy, for that place is to be very much improved this summer.

The Sicasane aeroplane is to start from there in August on its attempt to give prominence to the park.

—"Sicasane Park," he said, "has the additional benefit of having the famous Connaught and Premier Borden there as official starters for the aero-plane meet in the chamber. But in most cases attacks on veracity are often cleverly disguised."

For Glace Bay.

The people of Glace Bay, N.S., are happy, for that place is to be very much improved this summer.

The Sicasane aeroplane is to start from there in August on its attempt to give prominence to the park.

—"Sicasane Park," he said, "has the additional benefit of having the famous Connaught and Premier Borden there as official starters for the aero-plane meet in the chamber. But in most cases attacks on veracity are often cleverly disguised."

For Glace Bay.

The people of Glace Bay, N.S., are happy, for that place is to be very much improved this summer.

The Sicasane aeroplane is to start from there in August on its attempt to give prominence to the park.

—"Sicasane Park," he said, "has the additional benefit of having the famous Connaught and Premier Borden there as official starters for the aero-plane meet in the chamber. But in most cases attacks on veracity are often cleverly disguised."

For Glace Bay.

The people of Glace Bay, N.S., are happy, for that place is to be very much improved this summer.

The Sicasane aeroplane is to start from there in August on its attempt to give prominence to the park.

—"Sicasane Park," he said, "has the additional benefit of having the famous Connaught and Premier Borden there as official starters for the aero-plane meet in the chamber. But in most cases attacks on veracity are often cleverly disguised."

For Glace Bay.

The people of Glace Bay, N.S., are happy, for that place is to be very much improved this summer.

The Sicasane aeroplane is to start from there in August on its attempt to give prominence to the park.

—"Sicasane Park," he said, "has the additional benefit of having the famous Connaught and Premier Borden there as official starters for the aero-plane meet in the chamber. But in most cases attacks on veracity are often cleverly disguised."

For Glace Bay.

The people of Glace Bay, N.S., are happy, for that place is to be very much improved this summer.

The Sicasane aeroplane is to start from there in August on its attempt to give prominence to the park.

—"Sicasane Park," he said, "has the additional benefit of having the famous Connaught and Premier Borden there as official starters for the aero-plane meet in the chamber. But in most cases attacks on veracity are often cleverly disguised."

For Glace Bay.

The people of Glace Bay, N.S., are happy, for that place is to be very much improved this summer.

The Sicasane aeroplane is to start from there in August on its attempt to give prominence to the park.

—"Sicasane Park," he said, "has the additional benefit of having the famous Connaught and Premier Borden there as official starters for the aero-plane meet in the chamber. But in most cases attacks on veracity are often cleverly disguised."

For Glace Bay.

The people of Glace Bay, N.S., are happy, for that place is to be very much improved this summer.

The Sicasane aeroplane is to start from there in August on its attempt to give prominence to the park.

—"Sicasane Park," he said, "has the additional benefit of having the famous Connaught and Premier Borden there as official starters for the aero-plane meet in the chamber. But in most cases attacks on veracity are often cleverly disguised."

For Glace Bay.

The people of Glace Bay, N.S., are happy, for that place is to be very much improved this summer.

The Sicasane aeroplane is to start from there in August on its attempt to give prominence to the park.

—"Sicasane Park," he said, "has the additional benefit of having the famous Connaught and Premier Borden there as official starters for the aero-plane meet in the chamber. But in most cases attacks on veracity are often cleverly disguised."

For Glace Bay.

The people of Glace Bay, N.S., are happy, for that place is to be very much improved this summer.

The Sicasane aeroplane is to start from there in August on its attempt to give prominence to the park.

—"Sicasane Park," he said, "has the additional benefit of having the famous Connaught and Premier Borden there as official starters for the

By-Elections in Alberta

By-elections in Alberta will be held in the six divisional districts to fill the vacancies caused by the resignations of John M. Wolf, M. L. A., The last to resign was that of Malcolm MacKenzie, M. L. A., for Claremont; it is to be taken into the cabinet along with Hon. C. W. Cross, J. R. Boyle, M. L. A., for Sturgason and Charles Stewart, of Sardwick, which will cause vacancies in these to be filled.

At the present time the cabinet is composed of Hon. A. L. Sifton, premier; minister of public works, minister of telephones, minister of railways and provincial treasurer; Hon. Charles R. Mitchell, attorney general and minister of education; Hon. A. J. McLaren, minister of municipalities and provincial secretary; and Hon. Duncan Marshall, minister of agriculture.

The latest statement in political circles is that the new cabinet will be a working cabinet, and that there will be no minister without portfolio. This would mean eight ministers in the new cabinet, and would probably have premied Sifton minister of railroads and telephones; Hon. C. W. Cross, attorney general; Hon. Archie MacLean, provincial secretary; Hon. Charles Stewart, minister of municipalities; Hon. J. R. Boyle, minister of education; Hon. C. R. Mitchell, minister of public works; Hon. Duncan Marshall, minister of agriculture, and Hon. Malcolm MacKenzie, provincial treasurer.

C. P. R. in Austria

The announcement that the Canadian Pacific Railway Co. will this summer begin to run a series of Observation Car Services on the Austrian State Railways through the Tyrol, marks an epoch in the growth of the importance of Canada in the old world. Under a contract with the Austrian State Railways, the Canadian Pacific has arranged to build several observation cars in Austria on Canadian Pacific plans. The design is that of Mr. Vaughan, head of the C. P. R. Angus shop at Montreal, who has made a personal visit to Austria to study local conditions. They will differ slightly from the type as used in Canada and each car will have platform at both ends. The cars will be the longest four-axle cars in Europe. They will have a very spacious interior, and will seat thirty-two passengers. There will be accommodation for a typist, whose services will be at the disposal of the passengers; and an up-to-date library with all the latest magazines, just as the C. P. R. transatlantic trains will be among the luxuries of the cars.

Both Austria and Canada's Canadian Pacific Railway will benefit from the consolidation of the new scheme. The attention of vast numbers of travelling Canadians and Americans will be diverted from other parts of Europe to Austria, not only to see that interesting country, but to learn how these Canadian Pacific observation cars will fit their mission. There will be three observation services to begin with. By arrangement with the Silesian Government, the first on these will run between Zurich and Innsbruck over the Arlberg-Route via Landeck. The second will be between Innsbruck and Vienna via Zill'an-Zee and Salzburg. The third will be from Salzburg to Trieste over the Tauern and Karawanken Railways by way of Badgastein, Villach, Velde and the Valley of the Isonzo. This last is a new route only recently completed by the Austrian Government which has spent immense sums of money to provide a short cut from the north to Trieste, its greatest seaport.

The Austrian State Railway is particularly well favored in the country it feeds as regards scenery, and seems destined to be under the most favorable auspices in these new C. P. R. observation cars, the beauty of the land will be a most interesting part of any European tour.

Progress office is now located in the Banff building on Broadway. We invite our friends to visit us in our new location.

Southern Alberta Base Ball League.

At the meeting held at Carlstadt Wednesday afternoon for the purpose of organizing a baseball league to be composed of Redcliff, Suffield, Carlstadt and Brooks, the following representatives were present: H. A. Hart, Redcliff; J. McCullum, Suffield, and A. Swarth, and J. B. Houenau, Carlstadt. No representatives from Brooks were present. These present drew up the following schedule:

May 24, Carlstadt at Brooks; Redcliff at Suffield.

May 25, Brooks at Carlstadt; Suffield at Redcliff.

June 1, Carlstadt at Suffield; Brooks at Redcliff.

June 8, Suffield at Carlstadt; Redcliff at Brooks.

June 15, Carlstadt at Redcliff; Brooks at Suffield.

June 22, Redcliff at Carlstadt; Suffield at Brooks.

June 29, Carlstadt at Suffield; Brooks at Redcliff.

July 1, Suffield at Redcliff; Brooks at Carlstadt.

July 6, Brooks at Suffield; Redcliff at Carlstadt.

July 13, Carlstadt at Suffield; Redcliff at Brooks.

July 20, Carlstadt at Brooks; Suffield at Redcliff.

July 27, Suffield at Brooks; Redcliff at Carlstadt.

The following rules were approved that the visiting team furnish own umpire. That an executive board of four be appointed to act with the chairman and secretary of the proposed or organized teams. J. McCullum, of Suffield, was chosen chairman, and J. B. Houenau, of Carlstadt, secretary. H. A. H. of Redcliff, J. McCullum, of Suffield, J. B. Houenau, of Carlstadt and a man from Brooks to be selected by the manager of the Brooks team are to be on the executive board. That the home team pay all expenses, to consist of railroad fare and hotel expenses for 11 men. Gate receipts to be kept by home team. Home team to furnish two new balls for each game. That a contract be drawn up and sent to each team to be signed by the manager and secretary of the club; that all games will be played according to contract or forfeit $15 if found in fault by the home team. No reason other than weather conditions to postpone games. That a copy of the schedule be mailed to the manager of the Brooks team.

An Optimist from the South

After travelling four weeks without leaving his car in which was contained all the implements necessary for farming, as well as six miles, two stallions and a dog, Dale Sayre, a 19 year old boy from Medford, a town on the border line of Texas and Oklahoma, stated from the car in the freight yards last evening that he expected to arrive in a day or two at Cayley, Alberta, where his parents, still in his home town, have rented a farm. Four times since leaving the southern country was the car in which the young man travelled side-tracked and switched onto another freight train, and although tired of the continuous journey Sayre was in high spirits, and looked forward with much anticipation to arriving at his new home. The distance had travelled was about 5,000 miles.

Most of the farmers of the vicinity from where he came will emigrate to Alberta this summer and if I find the country as I expect," said Sayre, "my family will be along in a week or two and we will send back word as to our prospects as soon as possible. If they are favorable and believe they will, there will be a great immigration to this province of my former neighbors who are tired of the grind and are desirous of locating in a country where they can reap a harvest as a result of their toil." The car was attached to a freight, late last evening and Sayre was again on his way after a stay in Lethbridge of a few hours—Medicine Hat News.

Charles England was at Brooks on business Monday.

Our Advertisers

The personal guarantee of the publisher of Progress stands back of every advertisement in this paper. Deal with them, they are reliable.

PIONEER DRAY LINEConveying, House Moving and Team Work

All work done promptly at right prices

HANS JENSEN

CARLSTADT HOTEL M. STUBBS, Proprietor

STEAM HEAT THROUGHOUT

Why Not Raise Sheep?

When the question is asked, "Why don't we keep sheep?" the answer is very likely to be: "Prices are not suitable; dogs won't leave them alone; they bite too close for the cattle, and other causes too numerous to mention." But, when questioned more closely, practically all will admit that sheep are profitable. While we must agree that, owing to the scarcity of farm help, fences have been neglected, yet any farmer that has made up his mind to keep sheep will fence at least a portion of his farm so as to keep them; and to do this, no material can substitute woven wire, either from the point of efficiency or economy. While it may cost a few cents per rod more than the rail fence, the extra land that would become workable through the removal of the rail fence would soon pay the extra cost.

Possibly the greatest hindrance to the sheep-breeding industry is the dog nuisance, but this great obstacle could be largely set aside by each Province establishing a compulsory tax on dogs, giving a reasonable compensation for sheep injured or killed by them, and by strictly enforcing that law. Good laws are of little effect if they are not put in force.

I would like to ask a question right here: Are we likely to have the dog tax thoroughly looked after in the present form? How many assessors are doing this part of their work thoroughly?

Even where dogs are allowed to run at random, how much would it cost to fence a five or ten-acre field with a dog-proof fence, where the flock could be corralled at night, out of danger, and to where they would soon learn to gather if it was there regularly? How much would it cost? Well, let us see. I noticed in an advertisement a ten-wire, .50 inch fence advertised at $1c. per rod; now, add to this two more horizontal wires; at, say, 2 or 3 cents each per rod, making it a twelve-wire fence, 50 or 62 inches high, and I believe that we have a fence that practically no sheep killer can get through. And this is at an increase of from 4 to 6 cents per rod which, estimated at the higher price, would only be an extra cost of $0.80 to fence a ten-acre field, without in-juring the field for horses and cattle pasture, for grain-growing. Indeed, such a pasture-field near the buildings is a wonderful convenience.

As to sheep being cloe feeders, that is absolutely correct. If our pastures are loaded to their fullest capacity with cattle and horses, and there is a flock of sheep turned in, it will be liable to the disadvantages of the other stock. But if every 100-acre farm has, say, 10 breeding ewes, they would clear the way corners and the waste that the cattle wouldn't touch, and perhaps could have one or two days a week to clean up the roadside, than by returning to the farm fertility that would otherwise be lost, as well as a substantial profit on the investment, saying nothing of the wool that would be produced, either to be worked up at home or shipped to the manufacturers, where it would take the place of what at present has to be imported; and saying nothing about the advantages of sheep as weed destroying agencies. This alone should warrant every farmer in keeping a few sheep.—R. H. Harding in Farmers Advocate.

For Sale

Rhode Island Red eggs $1.00 per setting of 15 also a few cockerels @ $1.50. Clean seed wheat and flax. C. F. Starr at Lumber yard.

For Sale—200 Bushels Verna Gold Coin Potatoes, $1.00 bushel. W. B. Hoyt, Carstairs.

To Sell—Bull Orpington Eggs for setting, $1.00 a dozen. Guaranteed pure breed. Lipman Farm, Carstairs. Box 40.

The first league game of ball will be played in Carstairs on the 25th. We hope our boys will get all the practice they can and be able to win a few victories.

The Adanac Club

A very enjoyable evening was spent in the Club Rooms on Friday last when the members invited their friends to a dance. Messrs. Blanchard and Russell performed at the piano. Dancing commenced at about 9 o'clock and continued until 12 o'clock when a supper for which the ladies of the town had very kindly catered was served. After supper dancing was resumed and kept up until the early hours of Saturday morning when the party broke up, all vowing the evening a great success. The Club is now well on the high road to success and the committee feel justly that it is well maintaining its object.

There is now a rumor that the Club intend to build—so far as the writer has been unable to obtain any official news on the subject except the words "will consider". It is hardly possible however that we could expect an organization so young as the "Adanac Club" to possess the necessary funds to put up a building of their own, but we hope for the best and heartily wish the club every success in any fresh movement they may make to bettering and improving the position and comforts of their club rooms.

The Committee and Members of the Adanac Club most heartily thank the ladies who were so kind to cater for the supper provided at the social dance on Friday May 4th 1912.

Brooks Babblings

A. Carlson is building a house back of his blacksmith shop. Mr. Goss is having a sale of trimmed hats this week and expects to close her millinery business for the season in a short time.

J. A. McCall of Coltham was in town the first of the week and went to Calgary on business.

Stray stock is becoming a common nuisance. An advertisement in our column may bring them back to you.

A festival of kite flying is being indulged in our Chinese population, who take great delight in their national form of amusement. Some gorgeous kites have been sent up the past week.

Fred Whealney expects to have his new hotel at Tilley completed in about forty days.

W. W. Charlton has recently returned from Nanton and High River, where he bought three carloads of horses for the C.P.R. Irrigation Department.

The new Union Bank building is progressing rapidly.

Ives Bros. have bought a controlling interest in the Brooks hotel. Paul Pouplier retires from the active management and L. R. Hess, late of Palmerston, Ont., assumes control. O. L. Hess has sold his jewelry store to Mr. Carbin of Syracuse, N. G. Mr. Carbin is a practical Jeweller.

A man hypnotized and sleeping for fifty hours in the display window of the Brooks Trading Co. was the attraction over Sunday. Prof. Barnum, the hypnotist gave an entertainment at Gayety Theatre on Monday night.

Martin & Evans, the bakers, bakers and confectioners, have put in a plate glass front and now have a very handsome store.

The new addition to the Brooks feed and stable is being painted.

Guy Crandall, the horse dealer, expects his sixth carload of horses in from Montana to-day.

SUCCEED Without Advertising
But in any legitimate business advertising makes success easier.

CARLSTADT PROGRESS, CARLSTADT, ALBERTA.

The Old RELIABLE PIONEER STORE

Men's new Spring Suits, Shirts, Underwear, everything that is required. Ladies' Millinery to clear at 20 per cent off. Fresh Groceries ALL the time. Fresh Eggs.

F.C. WOOLLEN

WATCHES

Of Interest To Men

18 s Hamilton, 17 Jewel, movement only	$19.00
16 s Hamilton, 17 Jewel,	$18.50
18 s Rockford, 17 Jewel,	$18.00
15 s Waltham, 17 Jewel,	$10.00
15 s Waltham, 17 Jewel, gold filled $1.00, gold filled $5.00
COMPLETE WATCHES
18 s Waltham, 15 Jewel, $11.00	16 s Waltham, 7 Jewel, 8.50
4.00	16 s Perfection, 7 Jewel, 5.50
12 s Waltham, in fancy inlaid gold and silver case, $20.00
6 s Standard, 7 Jewel, 5.50	Gold filled cases at 6.00
Nickel cases at $1.50

B. A. Barnes
Issuer of Marriage Licenses

MONTANA Horses

Fifth Carload will arrive on or about Thursday, May 2nd and will be for sale at

BROOKS

These are good animals, all broke and ready for spring work and the prices are reasonable.

At Colquhoun's Barn
GUY CRANDALL

We want your newsitems
You will confer a favor by handing them in every week

Progress

Will be sent to any address in Canada or the British Empire

13 Weeks

For

25 Cents*

Atlas Lumber Co., Ltd.
Formerly Bowman Sime Lumber Co., Ltd.

LUMBER

Shingles, Lath, Posts and Cement

A full stock of firatsch building material. Estimates cheerfully furnished on all sized bills. Sole agents for the famous Galt Coal. Also a good stock of Taber Stone, Fernie Smith and Hillcrest Steam Coal always on hand.

Special prices on car lots of coal or lumber.

F. R. HUFF, Manager.

The Palace Ice Cream Parlor Candies, Fruits, Etc.

Nuts of all kinds. Alas Cigarettes and Cigarettes. Fresh Vegetables shipped in every day. Fresh Milk Saturday. Just receive a fresh lot of Eggs. Chocolates. Come and try some of our Drinks such as Egg Lemonade, Milk Shake and others too numerous to mention.

A. J. THEROUX

THE WISE MAN OF OLD

Built his house on a rock

You need not be so particular about the rock if you have a fairly good foundation, as you will not be troubled with floods, but your frame work SHOULD BE STRONG. That is the part that holds your building in shape. I have Dimension stuff for this purpose that is full two inches thick and will cost you no more. Call and see it. None of this is shaved off to save freight. Now is the time to haul ov those posts ready for spring fencing, while you have nothing else to do. I have both the cedar and willow.

Try our $16.00 Roof Boards
Call and get my estimates.

Yours for Business.

C. F. STARR
The Independent Dealer

Carlstadt, Alta.